Care: Let's Focus on Areas of Agreement First

Representative Stephanie Herseth Sandlin

September 11, 2009

While home in August, I had the chance to visit with thousands

I was pleased to hear the President in a recent speech

I also support charging insurance companies a fee for

Bringing down costs and reforming the insurance market have

The moderates in the House have our work cut out for us

I support necessary change in health care for our families
